

《中国将采取多重措施确保金融安全》

Chinese Premier Li Keqiang chaired the State Council meeting on Wednesday, pushing forward the works on anti-corruption and deepening reforms. During the meeting, the government decided to further streamline administrative approvals. Meanwhile, the country will take multiple measures to secure financial safety and punish behaviours violating laws and rules in the sector.

