

《伊朗总统鲁哈尼访问法国》

Iranian President Hassan Rouhani has arrived in Paris for a state visit to France. This is the second leg of his four-day European trip.

The Iranian president says he wants to strengthen relations that can benefit both countries. Rouhani began his visit by meeting some 20 company executives, as well as Foreign Minister Laurent Fabius and Economy Minister Emmanuel Macron. He's also set to deliver a speech to business leaders later today at a Franco-Iranian forum.
