

《中国出版物荣获2016 “世界最美的书” 金奖》

For Best International Book Designs - held in Leipzig, Germany - where a Chinese book has been awarded. Titled 'Orders', it was designed by Li Jin and is one of 13 books awarded out of 600 entries from 32 countries and regions.

It tells the story of a private bookstore in Xi'an over the course of 33 years. Published by Guangxi Fine Arts Publishing House, the book reflects changes in China's publishing industry.

'Orders'

The international competition has been held in Leipzig since 1963 and is organized by Stiftung Buchkunst. It aims to present the greatest creative accomplishments of art editors and designers as well as those in the field of printing.