

《Interview: EBRD president on participation in Belt and Road》

Another major talking point at this year's China Development Forum is how international investors can take part in the belt and road initiative. It's a major outbound investment drive by China, and the European Bank for Reconstruction Development is on board. Our correspondent Xia Cheng caught up with EBRD's president, Sir Suma Chakrabarti, on the subject. He started by asking how the EBRD would participate.

