

《Business leaders on supply-side reform》

Business leaders and economists both at home and abroad have weighed in on China's economic development.

The global trade volume increased only 1.2% in 2015 and that number is expected to be just above 3% in 2016. With the global economy facing downward pressure and uncertainty, top business executives have all voiced their concerns and spoken on China's newly released five year plan as well as supply side reform.
