But he was essentially a ceremonial leader, with long-time opposition leader Aung San Suu Kyi acting as de facto president.

??

The statement posted on the presidency's Facebook page said Htin Kyaw wanted to "take a rest".

??

Vice-President Myint Swe, a former general, would act as president until a new president is chosen within seven days, it said.

??

Ms Suu Kyi, who was jailed for years under the military junta, was banned from taking the top job.
