

《EU ministers to meet on attacks》

Dutch Minister of Security and Justice says a ministerial meeting of the European Union will be held to discuss the attacks in Brussels.

Dutch Prime minister Mark Rutte told the press that the Netherlands will stay in close contact with Germany, Belgium and France in case additional measures are required.

