导读:来自于沈阳的27岁佟傲楠一连通宵几夜用840块魔方给心动女孩拼出头像来表达爱意。

A Chinese man is back to square one after creating a Rubik's cube portrait as a way of confessing his love to his crush.

????????????????????????????

Tong Ao'nan, 27, from Shenyang stayed awake through several nights to solve 840 Rubick's cubes to create a likeness of his sweetheart, according to Huanqiu, a local news outlet.

Tong told reporters that he was relying on the massive portrait of his lady friend to help him confess his love for her.

????????????????????????????

No such luck, though.
