李克强：加强与蒙古国的合作建立两国间更紧密的关系

国务院总理李克强表示中国愿加强与蒙古国之间的合作并在其访问蒙古国期间与蒙古建立更加紧密的关系。

Chinese Premier Li Keqiang has said China is willing to strengthen cooperation with Mongolia and forge closer ties during his visit to the country.

Chinese Premier Li Keqiang (L) holds talks with Mongolian Prime Minister Jargaltulga Erdenebat in Ulan Bator, Mongolia, July 14, 2016.

Li said during talks with Mongolia's prime minister, Jargaltulga Erdenebat, that the two countries should complement each other economically and that new opportunities are available to deepen cooperation. He said China is ready to dovetail its Belt and Road Initiative with Mongolia's Steppe Road program. He added that China is willing to start a feasibility study on a free trade pact with Mongolia.

Erdenebat said his new government is committed to maintaining traditional ties with China and pushing forward a comprehensive strategic partnership.
