

《中央军委晋升上将军衔仪式英文报道》

中央军委晋升上将军衔仪式英文报道

??

China has added two more generals to its highest rank of active military officers. The Central Military Commission promoted the two officers on Friday.

Chinese President Xi Jinping (C, front), who is also chairman of the Central Military Commission (CMC), and other military leaders pose for a group photo with two senior military officers, who are promoted to the rank of general, the highest rank for officers in active service, after a promotion ceremony in Beijing, capital of China, July 29, 2016. Xi Jinping presented the officers with certificates of command on Friday. (Xinhua/Li Gang)

They are Zhu Fuxi from the Western Theatre Command, and Yi Xiaoguang from the commission's Joint Staff Department. President Xi Jinping, who also holds the post of military commission chairman, was at the ceremony.

The latest promotions bump the number of China's active generals to 39. The country's military now has five theatre commands - covering the north, east, south, west and central regions.

