

《意大利为291名地震遇难者举行国葬》

Italy has declared a national day of mourning and held a state funeral for the victims of this week's strong earthquake. Italy's Civil Protection Agency said the death toll has risen to 291, after a man died in the hospital. More than three hundred injured people are still hospitalized.

Italy has declared a national day of mourning and held a state funeral for the victims of this week's strong earthquake.

Italy has declared a national day of mourning and held a state funeral for the victims of this week's strong earthquake.