

《E3 2017在洛杉矶开始》

E3, the world's premier event for computer, video and mobile games and related products, began on June 13 in Los Angeles. Leading computer and video game companies, business partners, media, industry analysts and the biggest fans of video games from more than 100 countries have converged on the Los Angeles Convention Center for the event.

E3, the world's premier event for computer, video and mobile games and related products, began on June 13 in Los Angeles. Leading computer and video game companies, business partners, media, industry analysts and the biggest fans of video games from more than 100 countries have converged on the Los Angeles Convention Center for the event.