Dr Lisa Bardack said she was diagnosed with pneumonia on Friday and given antibiotics, but had become dehydrated at the New York event.

The doctor's statement said she was now "recovering nicely".

Secretary Clinton has been experiencing a cough related to allergies. On Friday, during follow-up evaluation of her prolonged cough, she was diagnosed with pneumonia, Dr Bardack's statement said.

??

She was put on antibiotics, and advised to rest and modify her schedule, it went on.

??

On Sunday, video showed her being supported by aides as they put her into her van after she left the 9/11 ceremony in New York early.
