

《Chongqing opens indoor ice sculpture exhibition for summer f》

Chongqing, southwest China, has opened an indoor frozen wonderland with ice sculptures for visitors to experience a snow world in sweltering summer. An amazing 2 million kilograms of ice was used to create the fantastic works of frozen art. The exhibition includes a host of traditional Chongqing characters such as “Old Hot Spot,” “Chaotianmen Wharf,” “Yangtze River Cableway,” and “Ciqikou Town.” (Photo: CNS/Zhou Yi)

Chongqing, southwest China, has opened an indoor frozen wonderland with ice sculptures for visitors to experience a snow world in sweltering summer. An amazing 2 million kilograms of ice was used to create the fantastic works of frozen art. The exhibition includes a host of traditional Chongqing characters such as "Old Hot Spot," "Chaotianmen Wharf," "Yangtze River Cableway," and "Ciqikou Town." (Photo: CNS/Zhou Yi)