

《Conjoined twins to undergo surgery to separate their heads》

Conjoined baby girls twins whose lives are in danger are finally set to undergo surgery in the coming weeks to separate their heads after an agonising wait. Rabia and Rukia were born joined at the head in Pabna, North Bangladesh, on July 16 at last year. They have now been admitted to Banghabandhu Sheik Mujib Medical University. Doctors will be monitoring their health before putting them under the knife.(Photo: CFP)

Conjoined baby girls twins whose lives are in danger are finally set to undergo surgery in the coming weeks to separate their heads after an agonising wait. Rabia and Rukia were born joined at the head in Pabna, North Bangladesh, on July 16 at last year. They have now been admitted to Banghabandhu Sheik Mujib Medical University. Doctors will be monitoring their health before putting them under the knife.(Photo: CFP)