

《触目惊心！全球各地纹身粉丝们涌向以色列进行疯狂纹身，有些甚至》

导读:纹身是一门艺术，它偶尔能够带来美感。可是，对于那种全身性的纹身，甚至是连眼球都不放过的纹身，您还能接受吗？

Barechested and lying on his back in a conference hall in Tel Aviv, Magneto isn't bothered that all eyes are on him. In fact, one eye is literally on him... a tattoo covering his right nipple.

????????????????Magneto??... ..????????????

The German tattoo model, whose entire face is covered in inkings, including his eyeballs, has travelled from Berlin to attend the third annual Israel Tattoo Convention.

??

And judging from his torso, he's keen on roses, zombies and cats.

????????????????????

Magneto is just one of many fans of body art who has flocked from all over the world today to get markings from some of Israel's leading artists at the two-day fair.

There are those in the Holy Land who will tut at the tats: it is widely held that tattooed Jews cannot be buried in a Jewish cemetery.

However, Dr Anna Felicity Friedman, a self-described 'tattoo historian', said: 'From my (and others') research, tattooing isn't necessarily prohibited in Judaism - there are many ways one can interpret, for example, the passage in Leviticus,' according to the Times Of Israel.

Even so, tattooing has risen greatly in popularity over the last decade in Israel. For the converted, it is seen as an act of rebellion, and not conforming to the religious norms.

The first convention was held in December 2014, with dozens of shops opening for artists to ply their trade.
