

《Meet the novel pets from Pet Fair Asia 2017》

A gold python is seen at the Pet Fair Asia 2017, which opened at Shanghai New International Expo Center on Aug. 24, with 950 exhibitors from around the world participating. In recent years, reptiles have gradually taken the place of traditional pets and have become very popular among young people. Which is your favorite?

A prairie dog is seen at the Pet Fair Asia 2017, which opened at Shanghai New International Expo Center on Aug. 24, with 950 exhibitors from around the world participating. In recent years, reptiles have gradually taken the place of traditional pets and have become very popular among young people. Which is your favorite?