

《全球近6成圣诞商品来自义乌，中国成世界最大“圣诞老人”！》

导读:当小孩子们嚷嚷着要圣诞老人、要圣诞礼物的时候，他们是否能够想象中国其实的全球最大的“圣诞老人”？

As the world's biggest transfer center for small items, the city of Yiwu in Zhejiang Province provides 60% of global Christmas commodities, with over 1,000 containers full of Christmas items being delivered abroad from Yiwu just ahead of this year's Christmas Day.

????????????????????60%????????????????1000????????????????????

Santa Claus-themed items and LED reindeer are sold in Yiwu through the year, making it seem that people here celebrate Christmas every day.

????????????????LED????????????????????

Workers in Yiwu set out to make Christmas products early in the summer.

????????????????????

There is a "Yiwu Christmas Village" where production is in full swing for months each year in order to provide commodities for overseas markets.

?????"?????"????????????????????????????????

It's reported by BBC that there is no items that one cannot find in Yiwu. A brochure of a local logistics company reads that Yiwu attracts businesses from all over the world like a magnet.

?BBC??

As many as 8,000 foreign purchasers come to Yiwu for commodities, reports Der Spiegel.

????????????8000????????????

This year, there were also direct railway routes transporting Yiwu products to Europe. It will take three weeks for the freight trains to arrive in Spain as they need to travel across Siberia.

????????????????????????????????????3????????????????????

