

《杨振宁、姚期智讲述回国原因：最不能放下是祖国！》

导读:近日杨振宁、姚期智放弃美国国籍，正式加入中科院，在接受媒体采访时，两位科学家道出了这一举动的原因。

Chen-Ning Yang and Andrew Chi-Chih Yao, who officially become academicians with the Chinese Academy of Sciences after giving up their U.S. citizenship, recently gave an interview to West China Metropolitan News to explain the reasons for their return.

??

Yang said that he became a U.S. citizen on March 23, 1963. He had considered the matter for a long time before making the painful decision. In a book published in 1983, he disclosed that his father never forgave him for abandoning his Chinese citizenship.

????????1963?3?23????????????????????????????????????1983????????????????????????????????????

Yang said it was also not a simple decision to relinquish his U.S. citizenship on April 1, 2015. He remarked that the U.S. is a beautiful country, and that it gave him wonderful opportunities to do scientific studies. He is grateful to the country, and knows many American friends will not agree with the decision to give up his citizenship.
