BOSTON (AP) — It will take a lot more than adding a couple of backups for LeBron James to declare the current Cleveland Cavaliers roster better than last year's.

It will take a trophy.

"The 2016 team won a championship," James said. "only time will tell."

The Cavaliers, who open a tough March schedule against the Celtics on Wednesday night, are adding 7-footer Andrew Bogut, who chose Cleveland over Boston, San Antonio and Houston. once he clears waivers and signs, Bogut gives the Cavs a big man to back up starter Tristan Thompson as they seek a No. 1 seed in the Eastern Conference and a chance to repeat as NBA champs.

Bogut's agent, David Bauman, said the 32-year-old big man thought Cleveland offered him the best chance to win a title. He averaged 4.6 points, 6.8 rebounds and 1.7 blocks in the playoffs for the Warriors during the two NBA Finals runs, but Golden State shipped him to Dallas last summer to help clear room for Kevin Durant.

After averaging 3.0 points and 8.3 rebounds in 26 games for the Mavericks this season, Bogut was traded at the deadline to Philadelphia in a deal for Nerlens Noel. Bogut and the 76ers agreed to part ways so he could join a contender, and on Tuesday night, he informed Cavaliers general manager David Griffin that he planned to join the team.

"He likes to compete and do whatever it takes to help his team win," James said. "(I) respect that."

With Kevin Love and J.R. Smith injured, the Cavaliers also added Williams, a teammate of Bogut's in Dallas this season who was waived by the Mavericks and will serve as a backup for point guard Kyrie Irving.

Williams said the possibility of winning a championship was the biggest reason he decided to join Cleveland. But the ability to share the floor with James, a teammate from the 2008 and '12 Olympics, didn't hurt.

"Watching him every day, seeing him lead and seeing the type of work he puts into the game. It's always something that was in my mind," Williams said. "I'm happy I have the opportunity to play with him. I played with a great one — Dirk (Nowitzki), in Dallas, and got to learn from him. Now I get to learn from LeBron."
