

《肯德基推出限量版智能手机 你想买吗？》

Fans of fried chicken and smartphones, rejoice! KFC has unveiled a new 5.5-inch phone complete with Colonel Sanders branding to celebrate 30 years since it first opened in China.

????????????????!????????30?????????????Sanders????5.5?????

The fried chicken chain has partnered with Chinese smartphone maker Huawei to make the surprisingly high-spec limited edition handset.

????????????????????????????????

The phones come fully loaded with 100,000 K-dollars - the restaurant's very own digital currency - so the owners can gorge themselves on the colonel's finest deep fried goods

????1???(?????????)????????????????

KFC said it would make just 5,000 of the Enjoy 7 Plus Android devices. They come fully loaded with 100,000 K-dollars - the restaurant's very own digital currency - so the lucky owners can gorge themselves on the colonel's finest deep fried goods.

????????5000? Enjoy 7 Plus ??????1????????????????????

The Enjoy 7 is powered by a Snapdragon 425 processor and comes with 3GB of RAM and 32GB of storage with an option of up to 128GB of expandable memory.

Enjoy 7???425?????3GB???32GB?????128 GB?

The phone has a 3,020mAh battery and features a fingerprint scanner, which could prove tricky to use after tucking into a bargain bucket.

?????3020????????????????????

The device, which comes in KFC's signature red colour, has a laser-engraved picture of Colonel Sanders on the back and retails at 1,099 yuan (125 pounds).

?????????????????????Sanders????????1099?(125??)?

The phone also comes with a KFC-branded music app pre-installed, which lets users create and share playlists at the company's restaurants.

????????????????????????????