

《中国好路人！十几名路人手拉手 冰湖救下3条命》

一特别暖心的视频显示，在河北省唐山市，有一群行人手拉手，从冰湖上救了落水的三人。

A heartwarming video shows a line of people in Tangshan, Hebei province, linking their hands together to save three drowning people.

??

The video, released by Hebei Radio and Television Station, shows a dozen people holding hands who formed a line more than 20 meters long, trying to rescue three people caught in ice holes in a frozen lake.

A boy, a girl, and their mother reportedly fell through the ice on the frozen lake while skating. They were rescued in less than three minutes, thanks to the help of people passing by.

Despite their heroism, some netizens pointed out that the rescuers should have lain on the ice rather than standing on it to reduce pressure on the ice when rescuing a drowning person.
