

4. At least 18 people were injured after a vehicle drove into a crowd of pedestrians in Shanghai. Police say they believe it was an accident and not an attack.

4.????????????????18????????????????????????????????

5. North Korea warned against US military-South Korea military drills after the Olympics. The US last month said its drills would resume after the Paralmpics.

5.??

6. The US says Syria may be developing new types of chemical weapons. Senior US officials said President Donald Trump is may consider further military action if necessary to deter chemical attacks.

6.??

7. Apple sold fewer iPhones than expected during the holiday quarter, according to its December quarter earnings. However, Apple beat Wall Street expectations for both revenue and earnings per share.

7.??12????????????????????????iphone????????????????????????????????

8. Fidel Castro's eldest son died of an apparent suicide at age 68. Castro Diaz-Balart had previously been hospitalized for depression.

8.???-????????68?????"????"?????-???-????????????

9. Elon Musk's Boring Company sold out if its $500 flamethrowers. The company also sold Boring Company hats for $20 to bring in revenue.

9.??-???(Elon Musk)??????500????????????????????20????????????????????

10. Google parent Alphabet missed revenue targets and its shares fell on Thursday. Alphabet also announced an $8.6 billion share buyback and a new board chairman during its fourth-quarter earnings report.

10.?????Alphabet????????????????2?1?????Alphabet????????????????86????????????????