Harry and Meghan chatted with Joanna during this year's event. Joanna's son, Max, said his mother had met Harry and his bride-to-be a few weeks ago when they met to decide the winner of the award in his father's name.

??

Despite not being a member of the royal family yet, Meghan handed out one of the awards. "I'm truly privileged to be here," she said before handing out the prize.
