

《中国官方回应D & G “辱华门”》

外交部和《长安剑》回应：不可接受。

Beijing opted against wading directly into the social media storm over alleged insults by a co-founder of Italian fashion house Dolce & Gabbana, calling instead for the outside world to understand the Chinese public's view on the issue.

????????????????????(Dolce & Gabbana)????????????????????

“This incident is not a diplomatic issue essentially and the Chinese side does not wish to escalate it into one,” foreign ministry spokesman Geng Shuang said on Thursday.

????????????????“????????????????????”

“Instead of asking the foreign ministry spokesperson, it is better to ask the ordinary people in China to see how they view this issue.”

“????????????????????”

Geng's statement came as Chinese celebrities, online retail platforms and consumers turned their back on the

[illegible]

??

"???????????????????????"