Students at Zhejiang Gongshang University in Hangzhou, East China's Zhejiang province, have been walking extra hard recently to earn discounts at the school canteen.

中国东部浙江省工商大学的学生最近一直在努力走路，以便享受学校食堂的折扣。

One of the school canteens has launched a special campaign from March 5 to April 10 to encourage students to exercise more, Beijing Youth Daily reported on Wednesday.

The campus is quite large and students usually walk about 10,000 steps per day just on their daily commute, so it is not hard for them to enjoy a 15 percent discount, Zhang was quoted as saying.

"Every day, we have a couple of students who can enjoy the maximum 45 percent discount; the highest record is more than 50,000 steps per day," Zhang said.
