

《一起加油！多国举行活动 向歧视华人说“不”》

新冠肺炎疫情爆发以来，一些华人在海外遭到歧视，华人餐馆和商铺的生意也受到不同程度的影响。但我们一致的敌人是病毒，只有各国人民一起携手，才能遏制疫情在全球的蔓延。为此，多国举行活动，向歧视华人说“不”。

???Lily Banse ?????unsplash???150???????????????

??150?????????????“????”???????????

In the wake of coronavirus-prompted discrimination against the Chinese community and Asian restaurants, a new event called Asialicious took over Toronto from February 14 to 28.

??“????”??????2?14??28???????????

Spearheaded by the Chinese Cuisine & Hospitality Association of Canada (CCHAC), Asialicious was announced to support "crisis-stricken Chinese-Canadian restaurants."

????????????????????????????????????“?”?

????????The government will also lead a 100-strong trade delegation to China when borders reopen and will host a dinner for the Chinese community in Victoria to pay tribute to their contribution.

????????????????????100??

The commitments come as Australia is expected to extend its China travel ban for another week amid ongoing fears about the spread of the virus, locking out Chinese students and tourists.

??

?????????????????Nearly 100,000 Chinese students are enrolled in higher education in Victoria and it is the state's biggest export industry.

?10??

Mr Andrews has appealed to Victorians to support Chinese businesses.

????????????????????

"Go and visit a Chinese restaurant, go to a precinct which is dominated by Asian businesses, go and show your support for them, because a lot of them are doing it very, very tough at the moment as people stay away."

???“???”

precinct[?pri?s??kt]?n.???;???

?????????blogto