

Passengers who take the flights during the transition period between Wednesday and April 22 should report the related information every day ahead of their flights. Passenger who plan to fly after April 22 need to report the information daily for two weeks before boarding.

2020?4?8?24?22????????????????????????4?8????????????????????????14??????????

??????

???“??”?transition period???transition????????????????????“????”???? difficult transition from childhood to adulthood(?????????)??????transition????????transitory????“????????”??????transitory happiness(????????)?

People who do not fill out the information as required will not be allowed to board, and passengers who failed to report it truthfully cannot continue their trip and need to bear corresponding legal responsibilities.

??

??
??

??????

???? concentrated observation

???? inbound flight

???? imported cases

????? epidemic prevention at borders

????????? curb the cross-border spread of the epidemic

???? declaration of health information

?????????