中国支持第二轮叙利亚和谈

China has welcomed the second round of Syrian peace talks. A spokeswoman for Chinese Foreign Ministry called on the two parties to continue their dialogue to resolve the crisis.

"The Syrian government and opposition will start their second round of talks today in Geneva, showing they are willing to engage in dialogue. China welcomes and supports this. China has always said a political solution is the only correct path to solve the Syrian crisis. The Geneva talks should be a consistent process. We also appeal to all parties in Syria to uphold the direction of political dialogue. The international community should create favorable conditions for their talks." said Hua Chunying, Spokeswoman, Chinese Foreign Ministry.
