

《“中国非遗文化周”曼谷开幕》

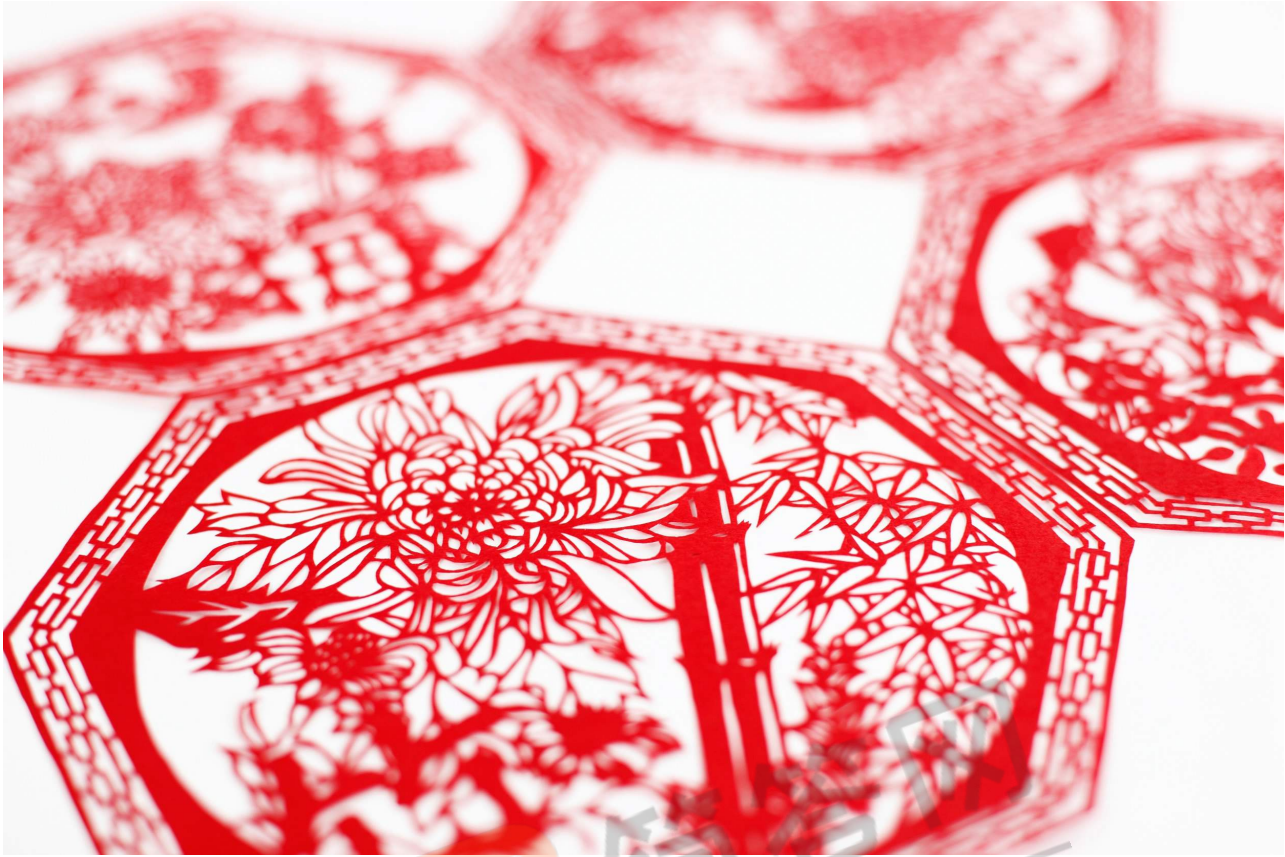

A week of activities designed to promote Chinese culture is under way in Bangkok, Thailand.

VCG Photo

The campaign, jointly launched by China's Ministry of Culture, China Cultural Center of Bangkok, China-Foreign Cultural Exchange Center and Guangdong Provincial Art Industry Association, kicked off at the China Cultural Center in the Thai capital on Saturday.

Events during the week include a film and television showcase, live performances and training sessions. There will be a focus on Guangdong-style puppet shows and paper-cutting, among other art forms.

VCG Photo

Organizers said they hope the activities will demonstrate traditional Chinese culture and deepen understanding between the peoples in the two countries.