

[illegible]

You've got the definitions here so let's take a look at how they would be used in sentences.

????????????????????????????????

1. Queen Bee?????

She is not known as the queen bee of the publishing world for nothing. She has single-handedly launched the careers of dozens of authors.

????????????????????????????????

2. Crown jewels??????????

These products are the crown jewels of this company.

????????????????

3. Prince Charming????

She really thinks that if she waits around long enough Prince Charming will come knocking at the door.

????????????????????????????

4. A Royal Pain (informal)??????

He can be a royal pain if he wants to be.

????????????????

5. Drama Queen????????????

She really is not the right person for the job. She is such a drama queen when it comes to having to deal with any situation however small it is.

????????????????????????????

6. Live like a king????????

In some countries, your salary would allow you to live like a king.

????????????????????

7. King's ransom????????

We had to pay what felt like a king's ransom for that property.

???????????????? (NB: This idiom is not commonly used).

8. Build castles in the air????????

You cannot grow a successful business by building castles in the air.

????????????????

9. Hold court????????

The chairman loves holding court at our shareholders' evening receptions.

????????????????

10. To be king of something????

Paul is the king of barbecues. Nobody does them better than him.

????BBQ???????? (NB: We also say 'queen of something')

Are you the king of something? Do you know anyone who can be a real drama queen? Do you live like a king? Let me know.

????????????????????

???????? ?????

