欧盟制裁包括亚努科维奇在内的18人

The European union says it has frozen the assets of 18 people, suspected of misappropriating Ukrainian state money. Ousted President Viktor Yanukovich is one of them.

The 28-nation bloc revealed the names of those targeted by its sanctions early Thursday.

The list includes what appear to be Yanukovich's closest aides. They include a former interior minister, justice minister, the prosecutor general, the head of the security services and Yanukovich's son. The sanctions also target former Ukrainian Prime Minister Mykola Azarov and his son.
