

《马来西亚载239人航班失去联系》

马来西亚载239人航班失去联系

Malaysia Airlines confirms that it is currently lost contact with one of its air planes carrying 239 people.

The flight departed from Malaysia's capital Kuala Lumpur at middle night, and was expected to land in Beijing at 6-30 today. According to the airlines, the flight MH370 has lost contact with Subang Air Traffic Control at earlier morning today, and there were 227 passengers including 2 infants, and 12 crew members on board.

Reports says there were 160 Chinese citizen on board, and the plane was last contacted with an air traffic control center in Vietnam. Malaysia Airlines is currently working with the authorities search and rescue team to locate the aircraft.

