Passage:

Every person has a dream. Dreams give us hope and motivate us to work hard. For example, there is a student named Tom. His dream is to become a great writer.

Tom has always loved writing. He writes stories and poems every day. He reads a lot of books and learns from the best authors. He knows that it will take a lot of hard work and effort to achieve his dream, but he is willing to do anything.

One day, Tom's teacher reads his story in class. Everyone is amazed by his talent. The teacher tells Tom that he has the potential to become a famous writer. This encourages Tom to work even harder.

Tom's parents also support his dream. They buy him books and help him with his writing. They tell him that dreams are important, but they need to be pursued with hard work and determination.

Tom knows that there will be challenges on his journey to become a writer. But he believes that if he keeps working hard and never gives up, his dream will come true.
