

《双语新闻:辱华言论事件发酵 全美华人抗议》

More than 1,000 people picketed ABC ' s headquarters in Burbank on Saturday to protest a Jimmy Kimmel segment that joked that the United States should “ kill everyone in China. ”

超过1000名抗议者在上周六围堵了位于伯班克的美国广播公司总部，对《吉米鸡毛秀》上称美国应该“杀光所有中国人”的言论进行抗议。

Burbank police said they responded to the protest after some demonstrators went into a restricted area. However, police said the protest was peaceful and no one was arrested.

The protest was part of a nationwide move backed by Chinese American organizations against the “Jimmy Kimmel Live” recurring segment called “Kids’ Table.” Similar protests were planned for Saturday at other ABC locations.

In the Oct. 16 segment, Kimmel has a roundtable discussion with a group of children about the United States’ $1.3-trillion debt to China.

He asks them how the United States should repay its debt, which prompted one child to respond by saying “kill everyone in China.” Kimmel later engaged the children again with a debate about killing the Chinese people or allowing them to live.

ABC and Kimmel have since apologized for the segment.
