“表哥”杨达才被判刑14年英文报道

表哥杨达才，原陕西省安监局局长，一审被判有期徒刑14年。

A court in Xi'an sentenced a former official of Shanxi province to 14 years in prison on Thursday for corruption.

Yang Dacai, former head of the Shaanxi provincial work safety administration, was jailed for 10 years for taking 250,000 yuan in bribes and another six years for holding unexplained properties worth 5.04 million yuan ($820,000). The concurrent punishment added up to a term of 14 years in jail, said the Xi'an Intermediate People's Court.

The money will be confiscated, with another 50,000 yuan as a fine, the court said.

Yang stood trial on August 31 and confessed to all the corruption charges.

Yang was given the moniker "Brother Watch" for smiling and wearing an expensive watch at the site of a deadly highway crash in Yan'an, Shanxi province on August 26 last year.
