全国各地节后迎来求职高峰

More than 10,000 people attend a job fair in Boxing county, Binzhou city of East China's Shandong province on Feb 8, 2014, the second workday after the week-long Chinese New Year holiday. More than 11,000 posts were offered by 189 local companies or organizations at the fair. The weeks following the annual Spring Festival holiday always signal the peak of job hunting as many people plan to change a job after New Year's.
