

????????????????????????????????????????T????????

Prince George, however, has not met any of the ladies whose hearts he has set a-flutter. The potential spouses were in the crowds at various royal walkabouts had to make-do with meeting the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge instead.

????????????????????????????????????????????????????????????

The Prince George's engagements have been kept to a minimum during his first tour and he spends much of the time with nanny Maria Teresa Turrior Borrallo.

????????????????????????????????????????????????????????????

William and Kate fly to events while the family and entourage remain settled in a series of hubs.

????????????????????????????????????????????????????????????

The Duchess has today admitted pining for George as they undertake a series of sporting and memorial events during their 19-day trip.

???19????????????????????????????????????????????????????????

During the latest visit to an Australian air force base near Brisbane, Kate told Hanna Peace, whose father David Pearce was killed in an improvised explosive device blast in Oruzgan province in October 2007, about her feelings.

????????????????????????????????????????2007?10????????????????????????????????????

Ms Pearce told Australia's Channel Nine News: "We talked a little bit about baby George. She said she wishes he was there with her because she misses him."