中国大妈把广场舞跳到了莫斯科红场！此举引起当地警察的注意，gmw.cn 周日报道。

Chinese senior citizens broke new dancing ground - Red Square in Moscow - with square dancing. The dancing caught the attention of local police, who went to the site to check out the activity, gmw.cn reported on Sunday.

Square dancing, a type of dance popular with the elderly in China, has been launched anywhere at anytime, such as at subway exits, in train carriages and even on the expressway. In April, several seniors were seen square dancing in the square of the Louvre Museum in Paris.
