A 19-year-old girl was sent to a school for teenagers who have issues such as internet addiction and learning weariness because she was reluctant to go to school, according to her father.

She died after she was "extra trained", hen.chinadaily.com.cn reported on Sunday.

According to another girl who was in the same training with the girl who died, five teachers lifted them in the air and then threw them to the ground repeatedly and severely, ignoring their pleas for mercy even after they began to bleed.

Five people who were involved in the case have been detained by police.
