韩国客轮沉没事件失踪乘客家属为亲人祈祷

There are more than 300 students from Danwon High School in Ansan on-board the vessel. 70 of them have been rescued and three confirmed dead. The remains of the three students have been sent back to their home town. Families of the missing ferry passengers prayed on Friday morning for the return of their loved ones, as about 270 remain missing.

"Da-hye, I am so sorry that I didn't come early. I am always praying for you. I wish I could meet her alive but I am not sure if that's possible." "If the captain acted properly, many kids could have been alive. It hurts. Really hurts." Family member of missing Lee Yong-Soon said.

about 60 rescued students have been receiving treatment in the hospital. Most of them were only slightly injured, but suffering tremendous mental anguish. The hospital has begun to psychologically treat the survivors.
