2014北京国际汽车展览会将于4月21-29日举行

The 13th Beijing Automotive Exhibition, or Auto China 2014, will open Monday at the China International Exhibition Center. More than one thousand automobiles will be exhibited including 118 foreign cars that will be making their debut.

More than 2,000 companies from fourteen countries and regions will be showcasing vehicles. This year, the theme of the show is "Driving To A Better Future". It's expected around 120,000 people will visit the exhibition daily.

With a history of over two decades, and with China being the world's largest car market, the Beijing International Automotive Exhibition has been recognized as the one of the most important auto shows in the world.
