Passenger enters train tunnel of subway Line 2, dead

A woman entered the underground train tunnel at the Drum Tower Station in the outer ring of Beijing's metro Line 2, prompting the emergency shutdown of a subway train at 7:18 am on Wednesday morning. Subway staff cut power to handle the situation, news.163.com reported.

Passengers on that line had to transfer to ground vehicles due to the metro emergency.

The woman was found dead, and the body was carried away. The cause of death is unknown.
