

《Everyday English每日会话：Fa 追星》

Bobby: Some singers just seem to keep on singing even when they are haggard.

Kelly: Why should a singer stop just because they are getting on in years?

Bobby: Singing is for young people. Old folks always look so pathetic when they try to act younger than they are.

Kelly: People like Mick Jagger from the Rolling Stones were so cool when they were young, but now they just look like sad old men.

Bobby: But their fans still want them to keep going.

Kelly: Sometimes you have to ignore your fans and do what is right.

Bobby: Maybe he likes singing so much that he can't stop?

Kelly: I think that he likes the money he makes from singing.

Bobby: Well, that seems like a good reason to me!

????????????????????????????????
????????????????????????????????
????????????????????????????????
????????????????????????????????
????????????????????????????????
????????????????????????????????
????????????????????????????????
????????????????????????????????
????????????????????????????????
????????????????????????????????

NEW WORDS ?????

- 1) Haggard: someone who looks very old
????????????????
Although my mom looks haggard, I still love her and think that she is very beautiful.
????????????????????????????????

2) Pathetic: hopelessly pitiful

????????????????

The teacher said that my excuse for forgetting my homework was the most pathetic reason she had ever heard.

????????????????

3) Fans: people who like a particular singer, band or movie star

????????????????

It must be hard for famous people to answer all of the mail they get from their fans.

????????????????

Dialogue????

Jessie: I heard a song on the radio that changed my life.

Tina: Wow! That sounds like a great song.

Jessie: It was! It had a good beat that you could dance to and powerful lyrics.

Tina: Usually songs that are good to dance have terrible words.

Jessie: I know and that is why I say this song will change my life.

Tina: Because now you can dance and sing at the same time?

Jessie: That's right! Maybe I could start a whole new type of exercise program?

Tina: You will need to find more than just one song though.

Jessie: Hmmm. I hadn't thought of that. Maybe I will listen to the song again!

????????????????

????????????????

????????????????

????????????????

????????????????

????????????????

????????????????

????????????????

????????????????