

choose??3?choose?“??; ??”?????before, instead of?more than??????????????

choose??4?choose????????????,?????????????:You can do what you choose (to do).??????????

choose??????

1. We unwisely chose not to go on a coach excursion to Trondheim.

????????????????????

2. They knew that discrimination was going on, but chose to ignore it.

????????????????????

3. I could obtain with the snap of my fingers anything I chose.

????????????????????

4. She chose Maggie to make her up for her engagement photographs.

????????????????????

5. once again, I chose to confront the issue head-on.

??????????????????

6. She chose a bench beside the duck pond and sat down.

????????????????

7. I never chose people just because of their looks.

??????????

8. In my case I chose that course which I considered right.

????????????????????

9. Unsure of the meaning of this remark, Ryle chose to remain silent.

????????????????????????????????

10. He chose to join the company as a market researcher.

????????????????????

11. Anne chose an upmarket agency aimed at professional people.

????????????????????????????????

12. Nancy chose the product because it is better for the environment.

????????????????????

13. We chose to do cross-country running.

????????????

14. He chose a singularly inappropriate moment to make his request.

????????????????????????????

15. I'm really stoked that they chose me for the team.

????????????????????

