

《cook的过去式是什么?》

cook???????

cook???;??;????????????cook??!

cook??????

???: cooked

????: cooked

????: cooking

cook????

cook???1?cook??????“??,?,?”“??”,????????????????“??,??”??

cook????2?cook??????“????????”,????????

cook???3?cook????????,????????????????????????????,??????,?????????????for???;????????????????,??????????????
?

cook???4?cook???????????????

cook???5?cook up??????,??“??”?

cook???????

1. Remove the vegetables from the steamer when they are three-quarterscooked.

???????????????????

2. When the fruit is mushy and cooked, remove from the heat.

?????????????????????

3. The petals can be cooked with rice to colour it yellow.

?????????????????????????

4. Use separate chopping boards for raw meats, cooked meats, vegetables and salads.

?????????????????????????????

5. Chefs at the St James Court restaurant have cooked for the Queen.

?????????????????????????

6. To serve, top the fish with the cooked leeks.

?????????????????????

7. When the rice isn't cooked properly it goes lumpy and gooey.

?????????????????????

8. With them also lived Mary Burinda, who cooked and cleaned.

?????????·??????????????

9. Cooked kidney beans can be used in place of French beans.

??????????????

10. Sprouted beans only need to be cooked for 1-2 minutes.

????????????

11. Food that is insufficiently cooked can lead to food poisoning.

????????????????

12. Each corn kernel will make a loud pop when cooked.

??????????????????

13. Drain the pasta as soon as it is cooked.

????????????????

14. The chops should be cooked over moderate heat to prevent excessive charring.

????????????????

15. Most of the food is cooked on a large wood-fired oven.

??????????????????