Dialog 1

W: Oh, no. Charlie, where is my purse?

M: Don't you have it? Did you lose it?

W: Yes, I did. I lost it. It disappeared.

M: Myrdal, purse don't just disappear. Think carefully. When did you have it last?

W: I had it when I left the house. I had it when we start to get the hotdog.

M: OK. Let' go back to the hotdog stand.

Dialog 2

M: May I help you?

W: My daughter. She is missing. I don't know where she is.

M: What dose she look like?

W: She has blond hair and blue eyes.

M: What was she wearing?

W: She has a yellow dress on and red sneakers.

M: When did you last see her?

W: I just saw her down the street. I don't know where she is. I don't know...

M: How long has it been?

W: Oh, it's been uh... fifteen minutes.

Dialog 3

M: What's the matter, dear?

W: Something awful happened. We went to the Portobello Road, and someone stole my handbag.

M: Oh, dear. Did you lose a lot of money?

W: No. only a few pounds. But my passport was in the bag. That' what I'm really worry about.

M: You must tell the embassy about it. And I think they'll issue you with a new one.

W: I'd better go tomorrow.

M: No. But you mustn't leave it too long. Did you report it the police?

W: No. I couldn't find a policeman.

M: Well. You must report that it's been stolen. And give the police description of your bag. You'd better go to the local police station tomorrow morning.

W: Yes. I'll do it tomorrow.

M: And Lisa.

W: Yes?

M: It's not the end of the world.

Dialog 4

W: Excuse me. I lost my way. Could you tell me where the scholar cinema is, please?

M: The Scholar? Let me see. Oh... yes, Of course I know. It's in the Lincoln Square.

W: Is that near here?

M: Oh, yes. It's just a few minutes block. Turn left at the traffic light, and you'll see it.

W: Thank you very much.

Dialog 5

W: I've lost my purse.

M: Oh, dear. What was in it?

W: All my money.

M: Well. Go to the police station and see if it's there.

Dialog 6

M: Excuse me. I'm a stranger here and lost my way.

W: Can I help you?

M: Sure. Can I get to the central department stall this way?

W: uh...Yes. Turn right, then take the second turning on your left.

M: Is it far?

W: It's about fifteen minutes' walk. That's all.

M: And do you know where the national bank is?

W: Yes. It's on this street. Keep walking for two blocks and it's on the corner on the right.

M: Thanks very much.

W: You are welcome. Good luck.

M: Thank you. I won't miss it.
