《让你哭笑不得的骂人奇葩语：各国俗语骂人大法》

Idioms and localisms often give a destination a sense of place. But while some patois offer a colourfulinsight to the local culture, others are frankly bizarre.

??

Flight bookings site Just The Flight have created an infographic revealing 20 unusual insults found around the world. Stupidity and ugliness are two subjects that are very popular as the base of sayings around the world.

Russia
'Хоть кол на голове теши'
'You can sharpen an axe on the top of his head'
This curious saying refers to somebody who is very stubborn. We do not endorse sharpening axes on anyone's head however, no matter how stubborn they are!
France
'Parler français comme une vache espagnole'
'To speak French like a Spanish cow'
Visiting France and trying out your newfound linguistic talents? Unfortunately you may not be as good as you think you are as Spanish cows aren't renowned for their French skills...
Bonjour??

??????????????????????????????????????orz!

Serbia
'Da Bog da ti zena rodila stonogu pa ceo zivot radio za cipele'
'May your wife give birth to a centipede so you have to work for shoes all your life'
A Serbian insult that is as scathing as it is specific! You must have really annoyed somebody to be on the receiving end of this!
England
'She's got a face like a bag full of spanners'
'She is very ugly'
A bag full of spanners may seem like quite a useful thing to be in possession of. Unfortunately, not great if it is in reference to your face!

Bulgaria
'Grozna si kato salata'
'You're as ugly as a salad!'
Are salads ugly...? Well, they're certainly not appealing, which must be the basis for this original, if slightly odd, Bulgarian insult!
Scotland
'Glaikit'
'Stupid'
A Scottish slang word, meaning stupid or thoughtless, which can be used to describe a person or their actions.

China (Cantonese)
'Seh tau suu ngan'
'Snake head rat eyes'
Snakes and rats, not animals that are known for their loyalty or moral integrity - as is the case here with the phrase describing somebody sly and conniving.
Hungary
'beka sege alatte'
'Under a frog's bottom'
This is normally said to insult somebody that is being ignorant, so if you're abroad and haven't brushed up on local culture keep your ears out for this phrase.

???????????????“????????”OMG???????…

Armenia
'Eshoon noor oodel chi vayeler'
'It's not pretty watching a jackass trying to eat a pomegranate'
An insult referring to somebody who is clumsy, this phrase certainly paints a picture!
Sweden
'Gå och dra något gammalt över dig'
'Go and hide under something old!'
Directed at someone who has said or done something stupid - telling them to get lost and put an old blanket over their head so they can look even more foolish!

??????????????????????????“????????????????”

?????????“????????????!”??????????????????????????????????……?……

Korea
'개새끼(gae saeki)'
'Dog baby'
The literal translation of this phrase is "dog-baby", so puppies right? They're cute! Unfortunately in this case it's actually an expression similar to "son of a b*tch". Not so cute...
China (Mandarin)
'二百五 (èr bái wǔ)'
'250'
Just a number right? Wrong again, èr bái wǔ! This phrase means you are stupid; referring to the ancient Chinese currency the diáo, comprising of 1000 coins, this insult suggests you have a quarter of a brain!
