??????????????

纪念诺曼底登陆的各种活动在法国举行。英国首相戴维·卡梅伦参观了诺曼底的一个博物馆，对为和平奉献了生命的烈士表达了自己的赞赏。

A series of activities marking the D-Day landings have been held at major venues and battlefields in France. UK Prime Minister David Cameron visited a museum in Normandy, where he voiced his appreciation to those who sacrificed their lives to bring back peace.

(L-R) Foreign Secretary William Hague, Queen Elizabeth II, Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh and Fion Hague attend a garden party in Paris, hosted by Sir Peter Ricketts, Britain's Ambassador to France ahead of marking the 70th anniversary of the D-Day landings during World War II on June 5, 2014 in Paris, France.

On Thursday Britain's Queen Elizabeth received veterans of the second World War at the UK's embassy in Paris. The Queen also planted a tree to commemorate the occasion. On the same day, Queen Elizabeth and French President Francois Hollande laid a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Paris. Hollande later welcomed her to the Elysee Palace, his official residence in the French capital.

Accompanied by her husband Prince Philip, Queen Elizabeth is making a three-day state visit to France. On Friday, the royal couple will attend events in Normandy to commemorate the 70th anniversary of the D-Day landings.
