Two men involved in last month's rioting against Chinese companies in Vietnam have been sentenced at a court in the city of Ha Tinh.

Le Trong Tu was sentenced to 30 months in jail, and Lo Minh Trong got 24 months. Both were charged with stealing assets from a Chinese construction company in the Vung Ang industrial zone.

The men were the first two to stand trail and be sentenced following the incident on May 14. At least 36 others are awaiting trial, mostly on theft charges.

The riot left four Chinese dead and 300 people injured.
